

Showroom Style

PARISH AND FELICELLA

Lacquered Up

Whatever the color or application, lacquer is the new “it” finish.

Clockwise from top: Early 19th-century coromandel 12-panel screen ($40,000) available to the trade through Joseph Minton Antiques, 1410 Slocum St. 214-744-3111. Cream lacquer and copper bead table lamp ($2,600) and ebony and red lacquer rectangular tray table ($4,900) by Robert Kuo for McGuire available to the trade through Baker Knapp & Tubbs, 1250 Slocum St., Ste. 790. 214-741-2586. Antique Turkish Oushak rug, circa 1890 ($28,125), by Matt Camron Rugs & Tapestries available to the trade through The Hargett Showrooms, 1025 N. Stemmons Fwy., Ste.

740. 214-747-9600. Red lacquer rectangular box ($1,159) by Robert Kuo for McGuire available to the trade through Baker Knapp & Tubbs, 1250 Slocum St., Ste. 790. 214-741-2586. Red lacquer bed tray ($240), antique Chinese red lacquer small writing table ($720), and antique Chinese red lacquer small stand ($720) available to the trade through Joseph Minton Antiques, 1410 Slocum St. 214-744-3111. Red lacquer and copper bowl ($1,345) by Robert Kuo for McGuire available to the trade through Baker Knapp & Tubbs, 1250 Slocum St., Ste. 790. 214-741-2586.

PHOTOGRAPHY BY PARISH STAPLETON